The world says, 'Happy are the clever, for they shall inherit the admiration of their friends. Happy are the highly ambitious for they shall inherit a lucrative career. Happy are the rich, for they shall inherit a world of friends and a house full of modern gadgets'. But the Bible says, 'You are blessed when you are content with just who you are, because that's the moment you become the owners of everything that can't be bought'.
(Matthew 5:5 –The Message).
