People often shy away from Christianity because they think they will have to live a perfect life and know that they cannot. But according to the Bible, Christianity is not for perfect people, but those who are imperfect, and have trusted Christ as their Saviour whose death on the cross meant that past, present and future sins would be forgiven.

Please remember in your prayers and praise:

- Those unwell including Cealwyn Stevens, Steve Friend, Margaret Scott, Jan Baalam and David Gardiner.
- This week's members for prayer: Bryan & June Thomas and Astrid Tricker.
- Pray for our country which is being governed by those who deliberately lie and mislead the electorate and, consequently, have lost the trust of the majority of the population. Thank God that many young people are turning to Christianity to find peace and purpose for their lives and that the Holy Spirit will work in their hearts so that they will influence how our country will be governed in the future.
- Thank God for the ceasefire between Israel and Palestine, for the release of the Israeli hostages and for the aid convoys which have now been allowed to deliver much needed relief supplies. Pray for those Israeli families whose loved ones that are believed to have died in captivity that the Lord will comfort them at this sad time. Pray also for a permanent agreement for peace between the two countries.
