Our relationship with God involves communication— not just an occasional brief chat, but a deep sharing of ourselves and our concerns with God. In the Bible God speaks to us; in prayer we speak to God. Both are essential, and both are gifts God has given us so we can know Him. He has given us the privilege of prayer because He loves us and wants our fellowship.

Please pray for:

- Those unwell including Cealwyn Stevens, Steve Friend, Kevin Scott, Bev Jolley, David Curtis and David Gardiner.
- This week's members for prayer: Philip & Sue Cobbold and Thelma Cook.
- The meetings at the church this week.
- The local elections that took place last Thursday and the effect of the changes to the political makeup of the many local councils in our country. Pray that the Lord will give our local politicians wisdom and a spirit of cooperation so that all the cities, towns and villages affected will feel that their views and concerns are heard and respected.
- That the efforts being made to end the war in Iran will succeed without the need for the threatened further bloodshed and destruction taking place.
