Other News and Information

- Gifts for our Harvest Thanksgiving service will be taken to the FIND food bank and given to those who are most in need in the Ipswich area.
- All help with the maintenance day next Saturday would be much appreciated. Come when you can and go when you must.

Our minds determine our thoughts. They will be either good or evil. Therefore if God is to change our lives, He will first have to change our minds. What will make the difference? It depends on us, and whether we will allow Him to enter our minds. If we do, we must be careful what kind of everyday thoughts we let into our minds and whether they will be a good or bad influence on how we live. Positively, they must be thoughts that are shaped by God, His word, and prayer.

Please pray for:

- Those unwell including Cealwyn Stevens, Steve Friend, Kevin & Margaret Scott, Bev Jolley, David & Lorna Curtis, Nigel Gutteridge and David Gardiner.
- This week's members for prayer: Revd Cole and Fiona Maynard.
- The meetings and groups at the church this week, particularly the new CYG group for young people that will meet weekly in future.
- The many people who work voluntarily for charitable, church and community groups and who are providing meals, together with help and support to those who are in need, lonely and concerned with how they will cope with the increasing cost of food and power during the coming autumn and winter periods.
